

FRANCOIS BATLLO

---

PhD, Materials Science &
Engineering

A business-focused, innovative leader with over 30 years of proven results leading market-focused global R&D, engineering organizations and operating teams to deliver new products and process solutions that consistently achieve growth objectives. Strength in designing and developing value-added innovations combining core leading technologies, creative intelligence, and commercialization discipline. Expertise in nanotechnology, water treatment, system and material development (R&D, engineering, manufacturing and applications). Six Sigma, Phase and Gate, intellectual properties and global leadership. Generated over $200M/year organic revenue for 2 Fortune 1000 companies across different industries: Power (renewable and non-renewable), Chemical, Primary Metals, Microelectronic, Catalyst and Refractory areas. Authored over 10 patents, 16+ publications in renowned international scientific journals, 8 invited conferences, and more than 40 papers in international conferences and seminars.

